

The Extension of Pathology: Collaboration beyond the Laboratory 2017 Programme

Day One: TUESDAY 23rd MAY
09:00 - 09:15	Opening	Carolyn Gullery General Manager Planning, Funding and Decision Support Canterbury DHB
Session One: Strengthening Clinical Relationships
09:15 - 09:35	The value of Collaboration in Health Innovation?	Johanna McCord Innovation Director Via Innovations, Canterbury DHB
09:35-10:20	Exiting your comfort zone, Breaking out of the laboratory walls	Dr Sandip SenGupta Professor and Deputy Head of Pathology and Molecular Medicine Queen's University and Kingston Health Sciences Centre Canada
10:20-10:45	Collaboration: The Key to Research	Dr Logan Walker Senior Research Fellow Mackenzie Cancer Research Group, University of Otago
10:45 - 11:15 Morning Break with Speakers Available for Questions
Session Two: Leadership and Innovation
11:15-11:45	The Role of Innovation in Strategy	Assoc. Prof Piet Beukman University of Canterbury
11:45-12:15	Unlocking the Flexible Organisation	Craig Renshaw , Human Capital Manager and Georgia van Tongeren, Human Capital Analyst Deloitte
12:15-12:45	Workforce Strategy Update	Michael Frampton General Manager, People and Capability Canterbury DHB
12:45 – 13:30 Lunch with Scientific Speakers available for questions
Session Three: Emerging use of e-Technologies
13:30 – 14:00	Virtual Reality applications	Peter Dooley Charge MRI Technologist Canterbury DHB
14:00 - 14:30	How does the new generation patient run their lives?	Heather Phillips Managing Director Phillips and Phillips
14:30 - 15:00	Challenging the Status Quo for Community Engagement	David Price Director of Patient Experience Waitemata DHB
15:00 - 15:20pm Afternoon Break with Speakers available for questions
Session Four: Pathology Beyond the Laboratory – the emergence of Point of Care Testing
15:20-16:00	Applications in Modern Medicine	Dr Tom Mulholland (Dr Tom on a Mission) Emergency SMO Auckland City Hospital
16:00-16:30	Lessons learnt and risk management	Dr Stephen Braye Network Director Pathology North
17:00 – 18:00 Rum Red Socks and Reminiscing Networking
19:00 – late Conference Dinner - The Patient Voice

DAY TWO: WEDNESDAY 24 TH MAY
0855	Opening	Kirsten Beynon General Manager Canterbury Health Laboratories, Canterbury DHB
SESSION FIVE: Business Intelligence
09:00 - 09:30	Information to make a difference	David Carter Director Stratos
09:30 - 10:00	Informing Clinical Pathways	Dr Martin Than Emergency Medicine Specialist Canterbury DHB
10:00 - 10:45	Applying BI in the lab	Dr Sandip SenGupta Professor and Deputy Head of Pathology and Molecular Medicine Queen's University and Kingston Health Sciences Centre Canada
10:45AM - 11:15AM MORNING BREAK WITH SPEAKERS AVAILABLE FOR QUESTIONS
SESSION SIX: Turning Information into Action
11:15 - 11:45	The Clinical Decision Support Roadmap	Michael Reakes Chief Executive Officer Pacific Knowledge Systems
11:45 - 12:15	Leveraging Pathology Expertise	Professor Steve Chambers
12:15 - 12:45	Translating practice from Urban to Rural	Dr Martin Than Emergency Medicine Specialist Canterbury DHB
12:45 - 13:45 LUNCH WITH SPEAKERS AVAILABLE FOR QUESTIONS
SESSION SEVEN: Back by Popular Demand - CHL Science/Case Studies
13:45 - 14:05	Chasing Shadows	Grant Moore Section Head, Toxicology
14:05 - 14:25	POCT - Working together to find a solution	Elly Barnes POCT Coordinator
14:25 - 14:45	Global Public Health and Scientific Collaboration: A Virologists Perspective	Assoc Prof Lance Jennings, Clinical Virologist
14:45	Wrap up and Closing	Kirsten Beynon General Manager Canterbury Health Laboratories, CDHB
15:00 CONFERENCE CLOSING

Canterbury Health Laboratories is grateful for support from:

